Frequently Asked Questions

How do I get my dress designed? What is the process?

You may visit me in person via an appointment (upstate NY) or ship your dress to me directly. Simply contact me at laidiecloth@gmail.com with your desired option number (above), or a brief description of your request.

(A sketch is highly recommended for your desired look, especially if you would like many enhancements) See website to purchase digital custom sketch.

You will then be sent an invoice (paypal). Once the invoice is paid (only when it is paid) you will receive a shipping address where you will ship your dress to be customized. Pictures & video will be taken prior to shipping completed garment for client(s) approval, Once approved completed item will be ship.

How long does this take?

On average additions may take 1-2 weeks, but the sooner you submit your dress the better, orders are completed in the order they are received.

How do I determine how long I want the dress train?

It is advised for you to have your measurements done, prior to placing orders mainly just waist to floor. You should wear the shoes or a shoe with similar height to the shoes, you intend to wear with your dress, to see how long the dress will be with heels.
