Measuring & Production

I can take the measurements needed for garment production, we will also discuss specific details. Pick fabrics and establish fitting time frames. At this time , the deposit of 50% (non-refundable) of the total price of the garment is due.

First fitting; I will do a "mark up" of your design, on muslin/cotton fabric. To ensure the best possible fit before we begin to cut on the chosen fabric. Once the Muslin sample is complete and fitted, clients will sign an approval form and pay final balance prior to rendering the design on the selected fabric.

Fabric swatches will be prepared for clients to review and approve prior to the start of the piece.

Second fitting; Garment will have been loosely assembled on chosen fabric. Final adjustments will be made.

Third fitting (*Final); The completely finished garment will be presented. Adjustments will be handled accordingly.

Please note some custom apparel orders may be subjected to fabric availability.

Fittings are Mandatory all clients are required to be available for at least 3 fittings.

*Please allow up to a minimum of 3-5 fittings before garment delivery.

Processing Time

Custom Gowns and formal wear, these garments take a lot of time and require a lot of love, fabric sometimes has to be shipped from all over or the world, for this reason please see below with regards to processing and completion time.

*These are minimum processing times, more time may be required depending on several factors including but not limited to; fabric & accessory, availability as well as the season of production, (wedding and prom seasons are very busy & usually require a longer processing time that may differ 1-2 weeks).

*6-8 weeks for Simple Dresses (based on my own evaluation)

*12-14+ weeks for formal wear including ladies suits

*6 months- 1 year Wedding dresses

*6 months- 1 year Bridesmaid dresses (I take only a maximum of four custom bridesmaid dresses during this time period)

Rush Fees;

Rush orders are an additional 10%-25% the total cost of the garment. (at designers discretion, I may decide its not possible to adequately complete the garment while meeting the quality requirements for LAIDIECLOTH garments)

*As a courtesy to my fellow designers I will not copy a dress (or any other garment) exactly, I can create a similar piece but exact replications are prohibited. If you need a little style inspiration check out my Pinterest style boards

*At this time I will only handle local clientele for custom work or persons willing to come to the shop. I cover the Hudson Valley area to NYC. (Please see travel policies for any further availability)

*I operate by appointment only

What are your refund/return policies?

Unfortunately because these garments are custom made to fit you and only you, there are No Refunds.
